

The Synod of Constantinople formulated the pronouncement which marked the irrevocable Parting of the Church of the East from the Church of the West. It denounced as damnable heresies the longe doctrine of the procession of the Holy Spirit from the Father and the Son and of clerical celibacy. Pope Nicholas I^o of his own authority.

excommunicated the Byzantine patriarch :- the Synod gave the imperial reply to papal arrogance ; and in so doing made the cleavage permanent.

867

Accession of Basil I, the Macedonian Emperor in Constantinople.

867

England
Danish Conquest of Northumbria.

BASIL inaugurate the Macedonian Dynasty

Battle of York

Danes routed Saxons, killed Northumbrian King, and ended Saxon power in north Britain

867-1057

1912 Dates J-BK

Eastern or Byzantine Empire was ruled by the MACEDONIAN line.

MAGYARS; Bulgarians and Arabs ARABS attack the empire

867-886

Basil I was Byzantine Emperor

867 - 872

107th Pope

Adrian II

Rome, VII. General Council held at Constantinople condemned Photius and settled the Greek Schism (869-870)

867

Murder of Michael II; accession of Basil I the Macedonian